

NORTHUMBERLAND PLAYERS

2010 –2011 DINNER THEATRE SEASON

HAVING HOPE at HOME

(David S. Craig, 2005)

A very clever, funny and heart-warming look at a family learning to love each other again through hope and forgiveness. Modern medicine meets midwifery at full speed when the daughter of a gynaecologist insists on doing things her own way. All the action takes place in the kitchen of the grandfather's oldhouse...somewhere in Canada.

THE TROUBLE WITH RICHARD

(L.E.Hines, 2007)

For a quiet guy, Richard's life is getting complicated. He wants to propose to the girl he loves but he has to get his best buddy off the couch first. As he struggles to get everything just right, a Scottish superintendent wrestles with the plumbing, and an infatuated neighbour constantly hounds him. Will Richard ever be able to get the mood just right and win the girl of his dreams?

LOOKING

(Norm Foster, 2006)

From one of Canada's most popular playwrights comes this hilarious comedy. Val is an O.R. nurse, Andy is in the storage business, Nina is a police officer and Matt is the host of a morning radio show. They're middle-aged, single and looking. Val agrees to meet Andy after answering his personal ad in the newspaper and Nina and Matt are coaxed into joining their friends for support. What follows is hilarious, touching and so very true to life.
