Members agree to permit any photos taken of the artist, performance or work taken on behalf of) PRAC to be used to promote the artist, the arts council or events in flyers, publications, on the Internet and in social media. Members who include their e-mail address will receive mail through MailChimp from the arts council, but the list is not sold or shared. In order to be considered to exhibit artwork in our "Art in Public Places" project current PRAC membership is required. Thank you for your support.
